

Presentation of objections and comments

The notice was issued both to the public, surrounding residents as well as to the constituency office to register and provide comments on the proposed mini market development. However, no one register as affected and interested party to provide comments and objections as at 30th June 2025, set deadline for comments.