

10 March 2026

Statement re radioactive risk from Africa Millimetre Telescope

The proposed Africa Millimetre Telescope to be established at Farm Golschau contains no nuclear or radio-active material.

The apparatus is a telescope that detects radio-wave frequencies. This has nothing to do with radio-active substances and there is zero nuclear risk from the project.

John Pallett

Resilient Environmental Solutions cc

P O Box 90709

Windhoek