Capricorn Eagles to face Scotland today

■ Hilma Nalupe

THE Capricorn Eagles, Namibia's women's cricket team, is currently in Bangkok, Thailand, for the ICC Women's Emerging Nations Trophy tournament.

The tournament began on 20 November and will end on 1 December. It features eight associate member teams and aims to bridge the gap towards major tournaments such as the ICC Women's T20 World Cup.

Namibia lost by eight wickets to Tanzania last Thursday, followed by a 12-run win over Uganda on Friday. The Eagles then faced the hosting nation, Thailand, on Sunday, where they lost by 27 runs. The Capricorn Eagles will face Scotland today, in their fourth match of the tournament.

Suren wins bronze at CAC African Champs

Namibian cyclist, Roger Suren, continued his impressive form this season, securing a bronze medal at the 2025 African Cycling Confederation (CAC) Road Cycling African Championships held in Kwale, Kenya, on Sunday.

The championships, staged from 19 to 23 November 2025, brought together riders across multiple categories, junior, under-23, and elite, both women and men, who competed in the road race, mixed team time trial relay, and individual time trial.

Distances varied by category, with women racing shorter courses than men, and junior riders tackling shorter routes than their under-23 counterparts.

Participants were selected by their respective national federations, with champions earning the right to wear the prestigious African Champions jersey in competition the following year.

Suren, who made history in September this year by becoming the first Namibian and African to win a silver medal in the Junior Men's Cross Country Olympic (XCO) race at the UCI MTB World Championships in Valais, Switzerland, once again demonstrated remarkable grit and composure.

The Namibian junior rider outclassed 54 competitors to claim third place in the 107.6 kilometre (km) junior men's road race.

The event was won by Natan Tesfalem of Eritrea, with Uganda's Paul Miro taking silver. Tesfalem crossed the line in a time of 2 hours, 44 minutes and 19 seconds (02:44:19), with Suren just one minute and 38 seconds behind him. -Nampa
