PERSONAL INFORMATION

Name of Consultant:	Ipeinge Etuwete Mundjulu
Profession:	Natural Resource and Environmental Manager
Date of Birth:	1984 – 08 - 05
Nationality:	Namibian
Membership in Professional Bodies:	None (There is no established existing Regulatory Body for Environmental Practitioners / Natural Scientist under any Act of Parliament in Namibia).

KEY QUALIFICATION / EXPERIENCE

Mr. Ipeinge is a Natural Resource and Environmental Manager with over 15 years of experience in environment and natural resource management. His key experience includes:

Environmental Impact Assessment Practitioner - Red-Dune Consulting CC: I founded Red-Dune Consulting CC, a technical consulting firm specializing in Environmental and Natural Resource Management. As Lead Consultant, I have undertaken numerous Environmental Impact Assessments (EIAs) and developed many Environmental Management Plans (EMPs) in Namibia. I have also contributed to the development of Green Climate Fund (GCF) concept notes and GEF Project Identification Forms (PIFs).

Conservation Scientist - Ministry of Environment Forestry and Tourism (MEFT) - While employed at MEFT, I reviewed a variety of EIA reports. Reviewing EIAs and EMPs provided me with extensive experience in the environmental management requirements for diverse projects.

Certificate, Environmental Management and its Compliances - This training course enhanced my knowledge of environmental management best practices and included review of environmental legislation to ensure compliance. The course included case studies on environmental impact assessment and on developing environmental management plans for new projects.

Certificate, Mining Inspection and Compliance Assurance - I completed a month-long training in environmental compliance at the Centre for Environmental Studies in New Delhi, India. The course aimed to strengthen the capacity of environmental inspectors to ensure mining-sector compliance with environmental requirements, particularly the implementation of Environmental Management Plans.

EIA and EMPs in Water Resource Infrastructures: Under Red-Dune Consulting, I conducted over 30 EIAs and developed Environmental Management Plans for the construction and drilling of water boreholes in various parts of Namibia.

Course - Environmental Impact Assessment (Blue Economy) - This course trained blue-economy stakeholders on coastal projects such as desalination, wind energy, and hydrocarbon exploration. The program included EIA case studies and inspections.

Marine Biologist - Ministry of Fisheries and Marine Resources: At the Ministry of Fisheries and Marine Resources, I was responsible for the short- and medium-term planning and coordination of research projects on pelagic resources (sardine, horse mackerel, and marine mammals), including optimal utilization of personnels.

National Project Coordinator - Benguela Current Convention: I served as National Coordinator for the UNDP-GEF-funded Benguela Current Large Marine Ecosystem project supporting the governments for Namibia, Angola and South Africa.
